The syllabus is available at the RUHS website.

Instructions for appearing in the admission test

The appearance in the admission test will not confer any right upon the candidate to be admitted to the course.

Each question shall have four options to answer, out of which only one shall be correct. (+1) mark shall be awarded for each correct answer, (0) mark for an incorrect answer or un-attempted questions. There shall be no negative marking.

The Admission Test shall be held at Jaipur at examination center to be notified on RUHS website. All candidates are required to appear in the admission test at their own expenses. No TA/DA will be paid for the purpose.

Admit card with relevant instructions shall not be sent by post and shall be available for downloading at the RUHS website.

ADMISISON PROCEDURE

The admissions shall be made strictly in accordance with common merit list prepared on the basis of score of the admission test and the order of choices / options filled in by the candidates in the on-line application form. The candidates are advised to exercise their choices / options very carefully.

First round of allotment process / counseling shall be on-line on the basis of choices filled by the applicants. If any seat remains vacant after on-line counseling, second round of allotment process / counseling shall be done off-line at RUHS. No separate notification shall be issued for off-line counseling; information shall be available only through RUHS website (www.ruhsraj.org). No separate information shall be sent to individual candidates.

RUHS reserves the right to decide about mode of admission. The decision of RUHS shall be final and binding to all. Candidates are advised to secure information regarding the admission from the website of RUHS (www.ruhsraj.org) regularly.

For complete admission process, no separate notification shall be issued; information shall be available only through RUHS website (www.ruhsraj.org).

Important to note: If at any stage, it is found that a non-eligible candidate is admitted to a course, then the admission of such a candidate will be cancelled on such detection. A penal action may also be initiated against such candidate.

Allotment of college and course (Counseling)

The allotment of college and course shall be made by strictly following the order of common merit, seats available in each course in each college and the priority of choice/option of the college and the course filled in by the candidate in the on-line application form.

Candidates securing equal score in the admission test will be admitted in the following order of preference:

1. The candidate of higher age (older candidate).
2. One who has obtained higher marks in Senior Secondary examination (10+2) or its equivalent examination.

For the allotment procedure / counseling / reporting at the allotted college after on-line / off-line counseling, separate instructions / guidelines will be provided to the candidates through RUHS website. No separate information will be sent to candidates individually or by any call letter. No TA/DA will be paid to candidates for counseling / allotment process.

The candidate's allotment will stand automatically cancelled if he/she does not report IN PERSON to the allotted college as per notified schedule.

During the course of study, no scholarship / salary will be payable to any candidate.

Note:

At the time of counseling, all in-service candidates are also required to submit their in-service certificate (in the prescribed proforma) through D.M.H.S./concerned competent authority as applicable.

In-service candidates must also obtain relieving letter from their appointing authority before reporting for admission at the allotted college. In case of non-submitting the relieving order from the appointing authority by the last date of joining, the admission will automatically be cancelled.

The admissions shall be treated as provisional subject to the final decision of any pending case(s) in any court of law, if applicable to these admissions. Further, the provisional status of admission shall stand cleared only after enrolment by the RUHS.

The decision of the admission board shall be final and binding to all.

All the judgments relevant to these admissions, passed by any Hon'ble court of justice as well as rules existing at the time of making admissions will be applicable on these admissions and the candidates will have to abide compulsorily with such judgments, rules and the changes.
